Crucibles of Leadership

For each question below, read the question and understand it. Close your eyes and ask this question to yourself. Open your eyes and write the answer.

Complete answering all the questions below in the same manner.

1. One experience / incident in my life in the timeframe of birth to now, that is most unpleasant. Preferably something that has happened very early in my life.

2. What was the emotion of that experience at that time?

3. What did I tell myself?

4. What did I feel about others?

5. What is the conclusion that I reached based on the experience?

My crucible statement is:

My dominant crucible emotion is:

My dominant crucible behaviour pattern is:
